IT'S GOVERNOR ORMAN NOW

Impressive Inauguration at State Capital Yesterday.

SIMPLICITY WAS THE RULE

Military Features of Programme Dispensed With---Inaugural Address Held Attention of Throng.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 8.—Colorado opened wide for thirteenth biennial period at, 12:25 today when Chief Justice Campbell administered the oath of office to Gov. Orman and other state officers in the presence of the largest assemblage ever seen in the state house. The ceremonies were as follows:

D. C. Coates, lieutenant governor.
D. A. Mills, secretary of state.
C. C. Post, attorney general.
Helen Grenfell, superintendent of public instruction.
J. W. Crenter, auditor.
James N. Dudley, treasurer.
W. H. Bryant, regent State University.

The ceremonies attending the inauguration of Colorado's new governor were marked by simplicity. This was in accordance with Gov. Orman's expressed wish. The ceremonies were carried out according to the programme as announced except that the military parade and salute were dispensed with.

The committee on decorations followed the wish of the new governor and the displays were of the simplest nature. Two vases of carnations decorated the speaker's desk. Some half dozen palms were set promiscuously over the platform. The chandeliers of the room were entwined with ivy and holly, while the walls and balconies were covered with the American colors. The center chandelier was perhaps the finest furnishing in the room. It was handsomely decorated with three evergreen and colored papers.

The preparations for the parade that were entirely were in charge of a joint committee and were well carried out. Admission to the hall was by ticket only, each member of the assembly being allowed six tickets.

During the recess intervening between the morning session of the house and the inaugural ceremonies the committee arranged 600 chairs throughout the room for the benefit of visitors.

The doors were thrown open to the general public at noon and within five minutes every available seat in the house had been taken.

The gallery on the left of the speaker was reserved for the state officials and their families. The families of Gov. Orman and Lieut. Gov. Thomas occupied the box at the left end of the gallery.

It was just 12:14 when the sergeant-at-arms announced that the senate was at the door asking for admission. The speaker directed that they be admitted and each senator in turn was escorted to the seat assigned him. Then the house was called to order by the speaker.

Rev. Thomas Uzzell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was introduced by the speaker and delivered the invocation. He prayed for the new governor and his associates in the state government, that they might be guided in the right way. He prayed that the people of the state might be blessed with prosperity and that the state might be blessed with peace.

In the meantime the governor's party had left the office of the late executive and entered the house. Chief Justice Campbell led the party, followed by Gov. Orman leaning upon the arm of the retiring Gov. Thomas. The party, followed by the incoming state officers, proceeded down the center aisle and around the left end of the speaker's stand to the platform. Gov. Orman was given a seat on the left near a chair reserved for Chief Justice Campbell, while Gov. Thomas occupied the chair on the right.

Lieut. Gov. Carney introduced Chief Justice Campbell, who administered the oath of office to the new governor at exactly 12:25.

Upon the completion of the oath a wave of applause swept over the room and Gov. Orman arose and began pronouncing his inaugural message preparatory to its reading. The message was given the strictest attention. Especially was this attention noticed when the governor was reading those portions relating to the state's finances and home rule for Denver.

The message as read is published in full on page seven of this morning's Gazette.

As the governor turned from the completion of his inaugural address ex-Gov. Thomas was the first person to grasp his hand and congratulate him as governor of Colorado.

The oath of office was then administered to Hon. Robert W. Steele as justice of the supreme court and then to the remaining state officers.

The speaker's platform was then cleared of all the chairs and an informal reception was tendered the new governor and other state officers as nearly all present who wished to shake their hands and offer congratulations.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED IN THE ASSEMBLY

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Jan. 8.—It was just 10:46 when Speaker Montgomery called the house to order. Chaplain Kirkland in the opening prayer said: "Thou God of all Gods, welcome to Thee in this inauguration day asking that the wisdom of God may be found on upon this assembly in order that those things that will redound to Thy glory may be done."

The special committee on inauguration reported. The report merely gave the programme as carried out later. The report was adopted.

Speaker Wants More Jobs.

Representative Dunlavy, chairman of the committee on house employes, presented a report recommending the following house employes as designated in the fusion caucus yesterday and printed in today's Gazette, be chosen. Before the roll call Speaker Montgomery stated that he did not believe the McCreery law under which provision for the number of employes chosen this session is made had any jurisdiction over this session. The speaker did not think the number of employes as provided for by the bill sufficient to conduct the business of the house and stated that as soon as the house was organized a bill would be introduced.

The report of the committee was adopted by a vote of 51 to 5.

Owing to the fact that such a large crowd was expected at the inaugural ceremonies, C. M. Coe was chosen temporary sergeant-at-arms for the day. Those of the employes who were present at the opening session of the house were: Chief Justice Campbell, the party, followed by Gov. Orman leaning upon the arm of the retiring Gov. Thomas. The party, followed by the incoming state officers, proceeded down the center aisle and around the left end of the speaker's stand to the platform. Gov. Orman was given a seat on the left near a chair reserved for Chief Justice Campbell, while Gov. Thomas occupied the chair on the right.

THE ROCHESTER FIRE

Twenty-six Lives Lost in the Orphan Asylum Disaster---Full List of Dead.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 8—Twenty-eight babies lie at the morgue and 12 persons more or less seriously injured are at the different hospitals in the city tonight as a result of the terrible fire which occurred early this morning at the Rochester orphan asylum. Of the dead 26 were children of both sexes ranging in age from 2 to 14 years and the remaining two were adults. The fire, which was discovered at 1:30 a. m. and was doubtless caused by an [illegible] from a defective flue in the room adjoining the west wing of the asylum, spread so rapidly that many of the 100 inmates of the institution were overcome by flames and smoke almost without warning.

A corrected and revised list of the dead follows:

ARTHUR KELLY.
GLADYS HILL.
GERTRUDE TONER.
BERTHA HALL.
VIOLA STUCK.
LILLIAN STONE.
MILDRED SLOCUM.
MARY ALEXANDER.
HELEN HAMILTON.
HAZEL MURRAY.
MINNIE TIFFANY.
MYRTLE PATTERSON.
ISABEL MARTHAGE.
GERTRUDE MCCAW.
MARION MCCAW.
KYLE OWEN.
CHARLIE BENHAM.
RHEA CONWELL.
BERTHA POTTER.
MILDRED WRIGHT (colored).
MINNIE SKINNER.
MARY KANE.
CORA POTTER.
EVANGELINE CAREY.
CHARLOTTE BRYANT.
PEACH CAREY.
MRS. MARIA GORDON (colored).
MRS. MARTHA GILLIS (colored).

The injured:

Loretta Cowan, serious.
Ellen Bellmore.
Miss E. M. Hibbard, serious.
Mrs. Cline.
Miss Kate Catterlin.
Morris Keating, fireman.
Blanche Addison, serious.
Paul Dunn, colored.
Miss Reed.
Miss Lawson.
Mary Brown.

The loss of the building is estimated at $100,000. Engineer Austin expressed the belief that the fire originated from a leak in the gas pipe.

In all the long and dismal record of lethal fires in Rochester there can be found [illegible] of such general horror, in the pathetic scenes in which so many lives were blotted out, in the valiant sacrifice of lives of the attendants in whose charge the children were and in the [illegible] to the hospitals and the morgue.

That so many children were saved from the west wing of the building seems little short of miraculous, and when the ruins were visited today one marveled that the death roll was not even larger. The scene following almost immediately upon the discovery of the fire and the accompanying excitement was such as to appall the stoutest hearts left. The windows of the west wing were filled with the terrified faces of the tiny waifs. Working like heroes some of the firemen struggled to release them from their perilous position. The rooms of the dormitory were filled with the smoke of the fire and the little ones were being nearly suffocated. Most of those rescued were lowered to the ground by means of ladders from the second and third stories.

The [illegible] from every hospital in the city reached the scene almost as soon as the fire department. All that proved fatally injured came to [illegible] of the rescuers. Many sufferers and dead were carried to [illegible] in the nearby neighborhood. There were [illegible] such as found the asylum at this hour. Most of those rescued from the building were unconscious from the effects of smoke. It soon became apparent that the building was doomed. A general alarm was sent in and the entire fire department was soon on the scene. The fire was finished [illegible] from every available point [illegible] more than one hour after [illegible].

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS PEOPLE

Expiration of Grippe Which Prevails at the Land Catches Mr McKinley

Washington, Jan. 8.—The president is still suffering [illegible] cold and [illegible] of the [illegible] has decided to [illegible] for three or four days. The [illegible] will be [illegible] during today, and the usual crowds for the [illegible] will have [illegible]. The reception of members at some time not yet decided upon. It was said at the White house that the president is not seriously ill, but has had a bad cold and these steps are taken as a precautionary measure.

At 5 o'clock this evening Secretary Cortelyou said concerning the president's illness:

"The president's cold has developed [illegible] and [illegible] of grip. The physician states that there are no complications and that everything is progressing favorably. The disease must run its regular course and the president therefore is not likely to be out of the rooms for several days."

ROOSEVELT COMING

Theodore Roosevelt arrived in Chicago from the east at 4:30 p. m. today. With a number of friends who met him at the station he went to the Auditorium annex where he remained until shortly after 9 p. m. when he left on a Rock Island train for Colorado Springs. He is on a hunting trip and expects to be gone about six weeks. He will reach Colorado Springs in time to be in readiness for the inauguration a few days before the inauguration.

BOERS PUSH ON

Cape Town, Jan. 8.—It is reported that the Boers have reached Sutherland and are within 30 miles of the village of Piquetsburg.

The country around Kimberley is being cleared of people, live stock and food stuffs. A commando of 250 looted a cattle farm seven miles from Kimberley.

It is reported that all residents of Vryburg who are unable to supply themselves with provisions for two months must be brought south.

W. E. MURRELL of Fairmont, fireman.
Unknown tramp, killed instantly.

WESTERN LEAGUE MEETING.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 8.—The meeting of the western baseball directors in this city was a failure so far as schedules and the clubs which shall compose next years circuit was concerned. President Hickey gave out the statement that the meeting to the effect that no matter was not brought up. It was the unanimous opinion of the representatives present that Louisville and Indianapolis [illegible] be retained until the next meeting. President Hickey's salary was raised to $5,000 a year. The Denver franchise was transferred from George Tebeau to D. [illegible] Arthur Sachs & Banks, Chicago, for taking his team from the field during the progress of the game was adopted. Another meeting will be held in three weeks at a place to be named later.

LI STILL SICK.

Paris, Jan. 8.—The Havas agency has received the following dispatch from Pekin dated January 7:

Prince Ching visited the foreign envoys upon the New Year and accepted the conditions of yesterday's note. Li Hung Chang is still sick.

GOLDEN CYCLE TO THE PUBLIC

Moffat Sells to Milliken, And Tucker, Ballard And Shepherd.

OVER $1,000,000 IS IN SIGHT

According to Conservative Estimates Mine Can Produce From $25,000 to $35,000 Per Month Net.

Arrangements for the greatest mining boom ever [illegible] in Colorado [illegible] were consummated yesterday [illegible] the promotion [illegible] Mr. John T. Milliken, a very prominent St. Louis capitalist, who has become [illegible] interested in Cripple Creek and the leasing and [illegible] house of Tucker, Ballard & Co., [illegible] and Mr. D. L. Shepherd, of Colorado Springs.

The property secured is the Golden Cycle group, covering an area of 25 [illegible] and [illegible] of the most heavily mineralized portions of the entire district.

Expert Moore's Report.

Mr. Charles J. Moore, consulting engineer for the Portland Gold Mining company, has been engaged for the past 30 days making an examination, and things very highly of it, indeed. His examination will not be completed for another week or so although he has had a force of six men working under his direction. He gives it as his opinion, however, that the [illegible] conditions in the property are most remarkable, that the veins have heavy mineralization and have every indication of great permanency. The values in sight are roughly estimated at well over $1,000,000 [illegible]. Mr. Moore gives it as his opinion that a big lot of ore can be developed in the near future with comparatively little expense in the way of development work.

The [illegible] pay veins opened up in the Golden Cycle territory. The ore shoots so far developed run from 75 to 600 feet in length and besides the important developments in the main veins the possibilities are very large in the other six. The narrowest body of pay ore opened up is three feet wide and the widest struck thus far, 22 feet.

Six of the known pay veins average up as follows:

Six Pay Veins.

Harrison Vein—Ore shoot 600 feet long, average width from three to four feet.

Legal Tender Vein—Ore shoot 210 feet long, average width eight feet.

Spar Vein—Ore shoot 125 feet long, average width 10 feet.

Rex-ruth Cutter Vein—Ore shoot 175 feet long, average width 10 feet.

La Bella Vein—Ore shoot 75 feet long, average width three and one-half feet.

[illegible] in two levels in [illegible].

There are five other known veins in the property, all of which show values but which remain undeveloped.

Nearly all the development work done on this property has been on the south 14 acres of the ground. The 11 acres of territory lying next to the Vindicator has remained practically untouched, and although undoubtedly of great value, remains in its virgin condition.

Over $1,700,000 Produced.

The production from the Golden Cycle group [illegible] to over $1,000,000, figures the end of last year, mining on the [illegible] was done and its size doubled, allowing for two cages for the better operation of the property. The mine is splendidly equipped with heavy machinery and a new balance hoister is now being put in place at a cost of from $10,000 to $12,000. Power for the air drills is secured from the La Bella plant at Goldfield which [illegible] Golden Cycle group.

Since operations were started in full swing in November last the shaft has been put down from 600 to 700 feet [illegible] the main shaft. This [illegible] and extensive development work has been carried forward in other directions [illegible] and drifted upon for a [illegible] feet. This main vein has an average width of eight feet, that the shoot is 600 feet long. When the 700-foot level is cut and [illegible] upon there will be in sight in the mine [illegible] of a million dollars [illegible] that is [illegible] from the ore in sight in this one vein after paying all expenses.

Dividends and Treasury.

The Golden Cycle company had a capitalization of 2,000,000 shares of a par value of [illegible] Milliken holdings in the Cripple Creek district and has returned big profits to the former owners. Lately the capitalization has been increased to 3,000,000 shares of a par value of $1 each, which was done to facilitate the present deal.

Under new management the company [illegible] treasury reserve, and it is expected that quarterly dividends [illegible] cents per share will be inaugurated from the beginning. Since the company started active mining in November last, [illegible] of about 110 tons has been made, and it is planned to maintain this. Estimates figured upon a most conservative basis show that the company can produce from $25,000 to $35,000 per month net, so dividends can be anticipated by the end of the first three months' operations. The dividend [illegible] quarter, so according to the above estimate it would be easily possible for the company to accumulate a cash reserve of over $100,000 besides distributing $180,000 in dividends.

The stock is to be floated at 45 cents per share. On the par value of the stock, the dividend representa 17 per cent and at the flotation price 17 per [illegible] on the investment.

Lease Makes $9,000 Per Month.

The major portion of the ground is being operated directly by the company, but one part of it is being worked under lease by Dalzell and Wilson. This lease is earning a profit of $9,000 per month, although it extends from the surface down only to 200 feet. This part of the territory can easily be cut [illegible] company workings. The La Bella vein can be opened up from three of [illegible] cross cuts from 15 to 40 feet [illegible] in length.

Splendid new ore bins with a capacity of 800 tons and fitted with all the latest improvements have just been completed. Owing to the connection of those prominent in the affairs of the company, the ore can be transported and treated at more advantageous rates than were obtained by the old management.

Mr. John T. Milliken, who takes so prominent a position in this promotion, has been operating in Cripple Creek for some time. He was responsible for the successful [illegible] Gold Extraction company at Florence. With him are associated a prominent capitalist of Chicago, who will probably be represented on the board, and Messrs. Zang and Campbell of Denver, large owners in the Vindicator company.

Messrs. Tucker, Ballard and Shepherd [illegible] Cripple Creek promotions, among which is the Gold Dollar, which is being developed on Beacon hill.

TO PROTECT AMERICAN INTERESTS AT PANAMA

Washington, Jan. 8.—The state department received advices today from Consul General Gudger at Panama, indicating that the Colombian revolution had again assumed a serious aspect. He states that the Colombian government announces that the revolutionists are [illegible] Panama and [illegible] making preparations for a fight.

There is reason to believe that the United States government will adopt a vigorous line of action in case the city of Panama [illegible] there is any interruption of the transit facilities of the isthmus. According to a treaty existing [illegible] Colombia the United States has [illegible] guarantee of protection over the peaceful control of this traffic across the isthmus. When Consul General Gudger, a few months ago, reported that the revolutionists would bombard the city of Panama, Acting Secretary of State Hill promptly sent a dispatch to Mr. Gudger announcing in unusually vigorous terms that this government could not tolerate any action likely to prejudice American interests or unite with the fleets which the government had assumed. The dispatch became public in Panama and had the effect of putting an end to the plans of bombardment. Mr. Gudger's [illegible] does not indicate that the city [illegible] about to be attacked, but it develops by later information that there is any prospect of bombardment, the viceconsul [illegible] repeated.

At present the [illegible] Panama and the Philadelphia and Iowa are on the way to that locality.

DAY'S PROGRESS IN THE BOOZ INVESTIGATION

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—The congressional committee which is investigating the [illegible] of fourth class cadets at West Point [illegible] academy, resumed its [illegible] today. Hugh Boyd, [illegible] of Redmond, Va., and Mr. Breth, whose death is [illegible] sister and his brother at West Point [illegible] testified that Oscar Booz failed in the examination [illegible] Mr. Alexander said he attributed his bad showing to Booz's poor eyesight.

Mr. Breth the father of John, said [illegible] the hazing of Booz undergone made him chronically nervous, broke his health and reduced his vitality to such an extent that the young man was unable to [illegible] the [illegible].

The committee adjourned to meet at West Point tomorrow morning.

KANSAS STRIKERS RIOT.

Topeka, Kans., Jan. 8.—Many of the miners in the Weir City mining district are out on a strike. The trouble resulted over the introduction of some non-union miners and the refusal of the companies to grant enough wages. There was a riot at one of the mines today in which an attempt was made to hang one of the superintendents.

THE HOUSE WILL GROW

Burleigh Plan Is Accepted.

ONE FOR COLORADO

Membership Increases 29 in Ten Years.

SENATE DISCUSSED CANTEEN

Much Mooted Question Came Up in Connection With Army Re-organization Bill.

Washington, Jan. 8.—By a vote of [illegible] today accepted the reapportionment plan proposed by the Burleigh bill, which increases the membership of the house during the next decade from 357 the present membership, and the membership proposed by the committee in the Hopkins bill, 40 [illegible].

Senators were Active.

The result was largely brought about by the influence of certain senators from several of the northern states who [illegible] their influence in the scale in favor of the [illegible]. When it became apparent that these factors were at work against the bill, Mr. Hopkins attempted to compromise by giving an additional representative each to [illegible] and Kansas, but all overtures proved to [illegible] after complete victory was assured.

Colorado Gains One.

The Senate [illegible] proposition to accommodate the bill for the purpose of ascertaining what states [illegible] the right to vote to an extent which would entail reduced representation was defeated, 150 to 119. There was no roll call on this vote but a number of Republicans voted with the Democrats. Under the [illegible] Colorado will lose a representative and the following make gains: Illinois, New York and Texas, three each; Minnesota, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, two each and Arkansas, California, Colorado, Conecticut, Florida, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, North Dakota, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin, one each.

To Elect at Large.

The bill provides that whenever a new state is admitted the representative assigned to it shall be in addition to the number provided in the bill. It also adds a provision never hitherto incorporated in a reapportionment bill, to the effect that congressional districts, in addition to being [illegible], shall also be compact. States which are allowed additional representatives by the bill shall, by its terms, elect them at large until the legislature shall re-district [illegible].

SENATE

Washington, Jan. 8.—More than the usual amount of routine business was transacted by the senate at the opening of today's session, about half an hour being devoted to the introduction of memorials and bills.

The senate then resumed consideration of the army re-organization bill. An amendment offered by Mr. Bate, of Tennessee, [illegible] the secretary of war to appoint 100 additional officers to the volunteer army during the Spanish war being given preference. The senate had also under consideration the much mooted canteen question in connection with the army re-organization bill. The canteen which had been stricken out of the bill by the senate committee on military affairs was [illegible] discussed the committee amendment but a vote on the proposition is not yet in sight. Senators Gallinger (N. H.) and Hansbarough (N. D.), vigorously opposed the amendment [illegible] in turn was quite as strenuously supported by Senators Sewell (N. J.), Hawley (Conn.), Money (Miss.) and Carter, (Mont.)

TO LEAVE PEKING

International Negotiations may be Brought to American Capital

No Progress Being Made.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The negotiations which have been pending for some time [illegible] of the subjects of international negotiation so that they could be taken up at Washington or at the capital of one of the other powers have now arrived to a stage where there is promise of a satisfactory understanding among the powers on this move. The plan originated through a suggestion of minister Conger [illegible] about a week ago to the effect that there was little prospect of securing united action on the subject of indemnity and new commercial treaties with China. Mr. Conger suggested that better progress in the negotiations was likely to result if those two phases could be removed from Peking and taken up at some point entirely removed from local influences.

COMMERCIAL BANK DIVIDEND

Special to the Gazette.

Washington, Jan. 8.—A final dividend of 5 per cent to creditors of the Denver Commercial National bank was declared by the treasury department today.

ROOFING TRUST GROWS.

Warren, Ohio, Jan. 8.—The three roofing companies [illegible] Niles and Steel, and the Curtis company, have been acquired by the National Roofing and Corrugating company which now controls about 80 per cent of the roofing plants of the country.

ALLAN E. DOUCETTE.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 8.—Allan E. Doucette, of the Harvard university football team of 1897, and one of the famous football centers of the county, died at his home here last night of typhoid fever, aged 28 years.

THE LACOMBE HAS SOLD OUT

Denver's Hope For Cheap Light Has Gone Glimmering.

SHREWD GAME IS WORKED

Light Trust Finds Bonanza in Denver's New Corporation Which Dodges Franchise Obligations.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Jan. 8.—There is to be no competition in light in the city of Denver.

A few weeks ago an innocent little suit was instituted by Mrs. Willard J. Ames, to annul the franchise of the Lacombe Light Co. on the ground that the ordinance had not been passed the required number of days, two days too much or one day too little.

A few days ago a judge of the district court decided that the franchise was void.

While the newspapers at that time stated that an appeal would be taken to the supreme court, later developments seem to indicate that the suit was a friendly one so far as the main litigants were concerned and that a deal has been effected in New York by which the Lacombe company has been purchased by the Consolidated Gas and Electric company, the rival light company of this city, provided the Lacombe company would get rid of its contract with the city.

A Prize for the Trusts.

Last spring there was a determination to have cheaper light rates in Denver and several propositions were made to the city council. The council finally accepted the Lacombe proposition which provided for much lower rates for consumers and for street lighting and providing further for the construction of a municipal plant for street lighting which was to become the property of the city at the end of 10 years. The franchise prohibited [illegible] consolidations with corporations [illegible] under the most rigid provisions of forfeiture. If reports are true it now seems that the people are to be deprived of all hope of a lower rate for light and that the gas trust will soon have the new company completely absorbed. The work of the new company is in such shape that its construction is just such as is needed by the trust. In fact things could not be in better shape if planned for another by the combined wisdom of both companies. The new company has covered the city with the finest lot of poles ever set in Denver, while the old company will be compelled to buy new poles inside of six months if it does not get these poles. No wires have as yet been stretched and all work on the line will be in better shape for immediate use by the old company if it had done it itself and for itself.

One Complication Exists.

There is one complication to the finishing of the deal and that is the rights of the city. The city is likely to vigorously prosecute and appeal to the supreme court, and if it does so there is small chance of that body annulling the valuable rights of the city on the [illegible] district which influenced the lower court. Under the decision of the lower court the Lacombe company has no right to set poles in the streets and of course if that decision is confirmed all the Lacombe company will have to do is to sell its poles to the light trust. That will be all the public will know of the deal. The real deal was agreed upon in New York before the suit to annul the franchise was ever begun. These suits are an old trick of the light trust. It got its franchises of the Western Electric company with the city annulled by the court on a technicality some years ago after it secretly bought that property.

CRIPPLE CREEK'S GREAT YEAR

Tremendous Prosperity in Camp And Heavy Dividends Responsible For Strength of Market.

Never since the discovery of Cripple Creek—since Colorado Springs became the mining center of Colorado has the new year opened so propitiously as in this year of grace, 1901.

From comparative dullness our mining market has sprung into tremendous activity. In the first five business days of the new year, more business has been transacted by our brokers than during half the month of December; stock values have advanced all along the line and in the aggregate represent a gain of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

From a dividend standpoint, too, the outlook is most flattering. Dividends already declared for this month and the new year has seen only seven days of life amount in points gone, while an estimate of all the January dividends brings the total up to and over $500,000, distributed as follows:

Nugget	$ 9,810
Ingham	1,500
Mary McKinney	30,000
Portland	180,000
Doctor-Jack Pot	29,000
Gold Coin	20,000
New Zealand	60,000
Consolidated Gold Mines	10,000
Bull Hill Consolidated	15,000
Vindicator	55,000
Granite	5,000
Midget	15,000
[illegible]	5,000
Strong	25,000
Total	$466,410

The splendid condition of the stock market representing as it does great activity and strength, is only the commercial reflection of the tremendous practical prosperity of the Cripple Creek district.

On the first day of January Cripple Creek's history for the preceding year was told and retold and not until then did the public fully realize the vast importance of the operations of 1900 and their wonderful bearing on the future. There is not the slightest doubt but that the present year will see an enormous output of ore and gold from this wonderful camp. At the close of 1900 the railroads could not handle the tremendous production and that condition prevails today, the big producers almost [illegible] for freight cars in which to ship their ore.

With the new [illegible] called from the cramped condition is in sight. The two railroads, already so busy in the camp, have ordered more freight cars which are to be speedily supplied, and the new railway between Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek is soon to be completed. The completion of the vast plant of the Union Gold Extraction company at Florence and the Rocky Mountain Smelting company at the same place makes room for hundreds of tons daily of the increasing production, while the plant of the Colorado-Philadelphia company at Colorado City will soon be augmented to the amount of [illegible] which will be [illegible] by the new [illegible] Operators on the Colorado Springs market are beginning to realize these things, hence the tremendous activity on the stock market and the steady increase in values.

During the year of 1900 many of Cripple Creek's biggest producers were in one way or another greatly hindered. Although the great Gold Coin mine made an average of 125 tons per day, the production was at the same time considerably curtailed because of the installation of a vast plant of machinery, the construction of handsome buildings, etc. The output from the Elkton was hindered for a time because of improvements in steam machinery. Impending litigation, wisely settled, held down the production from the Jack Pot and Doctor. The Strong and Gold King mines were both busy putting in new machinery, as also was the Victor for a time. Only towards the latter end of the year was the Anaconda given a good start and there are several similar instances of lesser importance but which [illegible] count for much.

The new year opens up with all these properties in the very finest condition for long and steady production and it will be surprising indeed if the gain of 1901 over 1900 [illegible] not enormous. The Portland company is steadily pushing down two new shafts both of which will add to the already enormous output of the mine; the Golden Cycle springs into prominence, its vast ore reserves will be further developed and made to earn dividends in greater quantity than ever; the Elkton company, which developed several million dollars worth of ore last year, will produce more than ever, with promise of increased dividends; Doctor-Jack Pot has already declared itself as being out of the realm of stagnancy; the Gold Coin with its greatest values at greatest depth and with a mill at its door step will make the record production in its history; Bull Hill is to the front with several new dividend payers; there are splendid indications to the north east on Galena hill and even further north than that; also to the south in the territory of the Cripple Creek Gold Exploration company, and the south west district on Beacon hill has already been proved to contain enormous values.

In this manner the story of Cripple Creek's present prosperity might be continued almost indefinitely; but it is, in brief the reason for the present tremendous activity in the stock market and heavy increase in values. The condition is not fictitious but has as its basis the solid values now coming out and left in sight in the mines of America's greatest gold camp.

GOVERNOR GAGE TALKS OF BUBONIC PLAGUE

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 8.—Governor Gage sent his annual message to the legislature today. In it he advocates economy in the administration of state affairs and devotes considerable space to the bubonic plague scare of last spring. In this connection the governor says:

"I personally know, with respect to some of the same subjects, officially reported as plague stricken, that where lymph was taken from such subjects and under my direction and most carefully watched and handled, no such results were produced under the microscope or upon animals as those represented by Dr. Kinyoun. When this federal quarantine officer represented that his inoculated animals died of plague, those inoculated under my direction fattened and thrived.

"In the glands which were taken during my investigation for experiment and examination, extreme care was taken to guard against [illegible] and prevent them being mixed with imported slides and cultures.

"Under such circumstances would it not be fair and just to assume that by accident some one erred in the selection of slides and cultures if such results as those reported by Dr. Kinyoun were in truth obtained. But at all events it must be remembered that Dr. Kinyoun, who has been so persistent in his reports of the plague, never had any experience with the disease proper, his experience being derived wholly from books."

NEWS TOPICS FROM DENVER

State Senate Devoted Morning to Introduction of Bills.

THE NEW GOVERNOR TALKS

His Own Office to be Example of Economy—The Pardon of Alfred Packer by Gov. Thomas.

Denver Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Denver, Jan. 8.—The morning session of the senate was devoted to the inauguration ceremonies and to the introduction of bills. The following were introduced:

By Senator Stewart—To prevent the expenditure of more than — per cent of the prospective salaries of office seekers.

By Senator Phillips—A bill aimed at trusts and combinations to raise the price of [illegible].

By Senator Allen—Providing for formation of a state labor department and the election of a labor commissioner.

By Senator Seldomridge—Providing for the formation of a state auditing board.

The senate then took a recess until after the inaugural ceremonies and from then until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The first official act of Gov. Orman was the appointment of the employes for the governor's suite of rooms. Private secretary, Royce W. Havens; official stenographer, A. C. Montgomery. All three of the employes are more or less acquainted with the work as all have had experience around the state house. Mr. Havens was deputy secretary of state under both Whipple and Beckwith. Mr. Jackson was the official stenographer for Gov. Thomas, while Mr. Montgomery was the official stenographer for Attorney General Campbell.

Gov. Orman walked from the Brown hotel to the state house previous to his inauguration and then walked back for lunch after the proceedings were completed. After resting a half hour at his quarters at the hotel he again proceeded to the state house, where he took up the routine of his new office. Kodak fiends besieged the capitol all afternoon trying to get a picture of the new governor, and it was while adjusting himself to be "taken" for probably the hundredth time that your correspondent had the pleasure of meeting him. During the conversation which followed, the governor said:

"The entire day's proceedings had my heartiest approval. They were thoroughly democratic and were in complete accord with the inaugural condition of the state. Colorado never had, and I doubt if any state ever had, an inaugural ceremony that was as inexpensive as the one we had today. Aside from the printing of the few invitations I doubt if the entire expenditures exceeded $250. The duties of the state are in such condition that the strictest economy must be practiced and I intend that as far as possible my office shall set the example. My preparation of the message consumed many hours of hard labor and I believe all the ideas as outlined are carried out our state revenues will be sufficient to meet [illegible] houses have completed their organizations and I believe every member feels the responsibility that is resting upon him and will do his part toward placing the state his best talents."

The governor would not commit himself as to the appointive offices he has to fill. He simply said he have no announcements to make.

The Parole of Packer.

Charles S. Thomas closed his career as governor of Colorado by issuing a parole to Alfred Packer, the well known character who has been confined for the last [illegible] years at the Canon City penitentiary. Packer killed Israel Swan [illegible] in March, 1874 in Hinsdale county. The latter had attempted to jump [illegible] Packer killed

The Art Business

We started in the art business here in a very modest way a little over six months ago. We believed there was an opening for the right kind of an art store. Our trade in this line has simply amazed us. We have had difficulty in keeping pace with the demand.

Our new department has enjoyed a liberal growth. We have not scored a "success" yet—give us five years to do that in. We have succeeded though, in building up a trade that justifies us in carrying the largest line of high grade art goods (Denver excepted) in the state of Colorado.

DR. ELLISON'S SULPHUR COUGH CURE.

This remedy has long been used by the doctor in his practice for the cough incident to consumption, asthma, bronchitis, croup, diphtheria, coughs, colds, hoarseness, loss of voice, sore throat, whooping cough, influenza, etc. It will not dry up a cough and cold, but aids nature in throwing off the poisonous mucus produced from diseased lungs, or a cold, thereby restoring the lungs and throat to a healthy condition. It is prompt in its action and absolutely harmless. There is no morphine, opium, piecac or injurious drug in its composition. In croup, whooping cough and diphtheria it equines the tough, filmy mucus and aids its expulsion from the system. Price 50 cents a bottle at the office, 24 North Tejon street (over Crabtree's grocery store.)

TRINIDAD

(Special Correspondence.)

Trinidad, Jan. 8.—During the past week poor teams and ordinary have been passing through here for the railroad camps between Sopris and Weston. There are now two large camps established. Work was commenced on the grade of the Colorado and Wyoming road, which is owned by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, last Friday noon at a point just above Sopris. Indications are that stations will be made at Smith's half way house and Weston and that spurs will be run from these points up Smith's canon and Wet Canon where the coal fields which will be opened up.

The Colorado & Southern surveyors have withdrawn from this territory, and this is taken here to mean that the conflicting interests have been adjusted and that only one road will go [illegible]

The recent cold snap was the coldest which has been known here for many years. The thermometer stood 20 degrees below zero in this city and 29 degrees below at S. W. Dolbusk's ranch in Sunflower valley.

Water pipes were burst all over the city, giving the plumbers a rich harvest. The janitor at the Park Street [illegible] pipes. As a consequence the boiler and pipes froze and burst, damaging the plant about $700. There will be no school in that building for several weeks.

There has been no loss of cattle or sheep. The fall has been so fine and dry that the grass cured dry, retaining all its nutriment. Stock was in fine condition to withstand the cold.

On New Year eve the D. & R. G. depot was burned to the ground, entailing a loss of about $2,000. When the fire department arrived they found the hydrants frozen and lost considerable time in getting water. Agent Cole has been advised that the old building will be replaced with a better one.

One of the jolliest watch parties held in this city was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Branson. About 25 couples were present, passing the evening at whist until the dawning of the new century.

The board of county commissioners has been in session this week closing up the business of the old year. Next Tuesday they meet to re-organize. There will be no change in the membership, but it is thought that A. P. Anderson will be elected county attorney, W. H. Morgan, present county attorney and late candidate for district judge, [illegible] judge of the court of appeals. His friends think he will get the [illegible]

How Kindness Helps the Convict to Reform.

Maud Ballington Booth, whose name the newspapers have been so effective a weapon for good, tells in Success for January how 10 per cent of the discharged convicts who have come under her fatherly notice have proved themselves untrustworthy. Her words are highly interesting.

"The drink evil is of course the principal cause of most crime. Crime follows drink as a tiger does blood, and we find that most convicts' families, as a consequence, are left destitute and we have had to help them along. So it is they who furnish most of the heart-breaking pathos of criminal life. Many sad stories could be told of the family left behind the man who goes to prison. But there are also many happy stories of the reformed convict restored to wife and children through Home Hall.

"Of course, Protestants, Catholics, Jews and infidels are alike welcome in our homes, the only condition being that they must conform to the rules, and prove sincere in their reformation.

"At first the most difficult part of our work was to procure employment for [illegible] and business affairs cannot be [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The House Furnishers

There's a greater difference in the price of furniture than in the quality usually. Examine it closely. The beautiful brilliance of highly polished furniture denotes quality usually, and then there must be the substantial workmanship of the time-tried mechanic.

You can furnish your parlor here beautifully, tastefully and economically in either Oak, Mahogany or Bird's Eye Maple.

Then for the dining room there are all the new ideas in designs, the popular woods in fine finishes and all thoroughly well made.

There's everything here, too, you might ever want for any other room, nook or corner of the house.

Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Linoleum, Oil Cloth, Crockery, China Ware, Wooden and Hollow Ware, Brushes, Bedding of All Sorts, Etc.

Inaugural Address of Governor Orman

NIKOLA TESLA AND HIS TALK WITH OTHER WORLDS

Special to the Philadelphia Inquirer.

New York, Jan. 5.—Not quite two years ago Mr. Nikola Tesla went out to Colorado to conduct experiments in regard to [illegible] which has engaged his attention for several years.

Mr. Tesla dwelt on his work to an interviewer this afternoon. He regards his latest results as the most important he has ever attained. Briefly Tesla has been able to note a novel manifestation of energy, which he knows is not of solar or terrestrial origin, and being neither, he concludes that it must emanate from one of the planets.

While he was conducting his investigations in his Colorado laboratory the instrument he was using to observe the electrical condition of the earth was affected in an unaccountable manner. It [illegible] movement, one after the other, [illegible] regularity in extended space. The makers of plays have to do with homely characters of the type of Harum and his associates. The fact is that good and simple playwriting is almost as uncommon as [illegible] to be artificial than to be natural. The man who writes rural books or dramas should have the odor of the soil in heart and brain. This is given to but few, and so it comes about that the average author of the farm-and-field has little sympathy with his creations, and he should deal with detail. The puppets are more as the man who pulls the strings pleases; and no one may say him nay. It must be otherwise when the work behind the footlights purports to be the latter instance the author should be in and of his characters, or failure is inevitable. An audience that cannot pass upon the truthfulness of action that presumably takes place in a fictitious kingdom is not to be keenly critical when it reviews the mimic lives of a group of the common people; and the frequent [illegible] boes, barnyard, and harvest homes, is proof of bad construction and indifferent seamanship.

A Treasure.

Incidentally, I may observe that Alonzo was my factotum. I called him messenger, commissionaire, philosopher, and friend. He was a Frenchman, who had been sent in his youth to Geneva to learn commercial bookkeeping, and had remained in order to avoid doing military service in the mother country. Thus, it is also evident that Alonzo was not a patriot, but he was a wise and artful youth; and I regret to say had the ablest and promptest talent for prevarication I have ever known. When a tiresome visitor stayed too long and asked too many unnecessary questions I could always depend upon Alonzo to arrange [illegible] me.

Thus, on this particular day, the tourist-college professor who had lost his trunk somewhere between Turin and Geneva was the only visitor left and we were anxiously waiting for him to leave, which he appeared to have no idea of doing, and I was therefore not surprised when Alonzo suddenly appeared and gravely said:

"Hue Monsieur forgotten that the official funeral of the mayor of the Commune de Plainpalais takes place at half-past five o'clock this afternoon?"

Sparks One Hundred Feet Long.

"In perfecting my apparatus I encountered at first great difficulties. I [illegible] sparks jumping out to great distance and a number of times my laboratory was burned down. I carried all the work through without a serious mishap. I gradually learned how to confine electrical currents of a pressure of 50,000,000 volts to produce electrical movements up to 110,000-horse power, and I succeeded in obtaining electrical discharges measuring from end to end 100 feet and more. These results were, however, rendered more valuable by the fact that they opened up still greater possibilities for the future.

"It was in investigating feeble electrical currents, transmitted through the earth, that I made some observations which led me to the theory that [illegible] Chief among these certain feeble electrical disturbances which I could hardly account for and which by their character unmistakably showed that they were neither of solar origin nor produced by any causes known to me on the globe. What could they be? This I have incessantly thought of for months, until I finally arrived at the conviction, amounting to almost knowledge, that they must be of planetary origin. As I think over it now it seems to me that only men absolutely stricken with [illegible] the greatness of nature can hold that this planet is the only one inhabited by intelligent beings.

Communication with Mars.

"I have perfected my transmitting apparatus so far that I can undertake to construct a machine which will without the least doubt be fully competent to convey sufficient energy to the planet Mars to operate one of these delicate appliances which we are now using here, as, for instance, a very sensitive telephone instrument.

"With regard to my work in other lines which I have simultaneously carried on my progress has been most satisfactory, and I hope that soon electrical energy may be turned to the uses of man in a way and for purposes such as to surpass in importance all that we have ever done heretofore."

This was my poor depraved Alonzo's favorite falsehood. I think during his three years in my service he must [illegible] worthy functionary fully fifty times. Occasionally, to vary the monotony of the deception, he would unexpectedly develop a corner-stone laying at Carouge, or the visit of a Federal functionary from Berne, but we generally whenever a visitor stayed too long. (Benjamin H. Ridgely, formerly U. S. Consul at Geneva, in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for January.

Joe Murphy's Picturesque Career.

Joseph Murphy has reached the goal of his ambition. He is probably the wealthiest actor on the stage today, and numbers among his admirers those thousands of theater-goers who enjoy the comedies redolent of old Ireland, her humor, and her pathos. Joseph Jefferson also finds him in warm [illegible] His struggles in early life read like a romance, and show the persevering spirit of this millionaire actor. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, about 51 years ago; and, being thrown upon his own resources at an early age, he went to California, securing employment in a Sacramento restaurant. The restaurant was burned to the ground one night, and William Lawrence Murphy (his baptismal name) was in search of employment. For three days he cast about, looking for work. The [illegible] he noticed something shining in the moonlight. What he thought, at first, to be a piece of tin foil proved to be a $20 gold piece. After getting supper and a good night's sleep, he started again to look for employment. While walking near the river bank, he saw a boy in a boat [illegible] Upon inquiry, he found that the boy was selling wild berries, for which he received $1 a quart. He bought the boat for $10, got information as to the location of the berry ground, and that season cleared $70.—(Success for January.

GRACE WILL WORK EXTRA CLAIM

To Get the Funds It Is Probable That the Capitalization Will Be Raised to 1,500,000—Raven Hill Machinery Will Be Moved.

The directors of the Grace Gold Mining company have just decided to call a special meeting of the stockholders of the company for the purpose of considering the question of increasing the capitalization from 1,000,000 shares to [illegible] shares, and doing [illegible] as may be deemed [illegible] The meeting will be held [illegible] and the directors will [illegible]

The directors were led to take this action by the desirability of the company's prospecting good work on the Extra Edna situated near the Santa Rita property on Squaw mountain. The lessees who have been working on the ground have been doing fair work but not so much as the company would like with a reasonable development and the best way of obtaining the [illegible] the result of the meeting.

It will then be the policy of the company to begin aggressive operations [illegible] moving its plant of machinery which it now has stationed over the Grace claim on Raven hill to the shaft on the Extra claim, still [illegible] to a depth of 500 feet as [illegible] point [illegible] work will be done in search of the [illegible] of the Santa Rita vein. The lessees [illegible] vein which runs as high as $500 in gold to the ton; but the sampling indicates that the ore will screen about $50 for the fine and $30 for the coarse rock.

During the progress of the development about 45 tons of ore has just been taken out of the vein and will be hoisted to the surface just as soon as the hoisting [illegible] in progress of construction now. After that [illegible] The shaft is now down to a depth of 150 feet, although the [illegible] was made at the 100-foot level. The lessees have [illegible] a foot of sinking which will give them a 500-foot drift on their ore.

The Camilla Gold Mining company has been operating on the property for a year, and [illegible] with any tangible encouragement. The company is composed of Denver mining men.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Although trading was dull on the morning session of the Colorado Springs Mining Stock Exchange, the market was active in a lively condition, although there were a few decided reactions, in prices which made the market look much weaker than it was yesterday. Many stocks, however, who are still selling at advantageous prices, and the interest manifested in the market indicates a further advance is especially thought that the reactions suffered by a few of the stocks are only temporary declines due to a large amount of realizing on selling, and that the demand which is to be continually manifested will again send the prices up when the people taking is diminished to a high degree. The trading was very [illegible] and the transactions were not as large as on Monday, but on the whole the market is considered very satisfactory, and in no way the market is [illegible] to a check. It is not thought has been put on the present rise, as the feeling toward investments is growing with the increased interest in isolated stocks.

The market on the afternoon was a little stronger than it was in the morning. Two or three of the stocks which had made reactions on the first call recovered part of it to some extent, although a slight tendency from the advanced prices was apparent, and at the close of the session the gains were scored as in no case did some react on the [illegible] suffered.

The sales for the day were heavier than they were yesterday, amounting to 1,845,000 shares of a cash value of $17,600.

New Century Greetings.

With the coming of the New Year, the president of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Ass'n sent to every wholesale customer the following pleasant greeting by wire:

"The Anheuser-Busch Ass'n heralds today the praise of those who helped make him famous throughout the world, and extends hearty thanks and New century greetings.

Adolphus Busch, Pres't."

The reference to the eagle will be readily recognized as applying to the well known trade mark of the largest brewing association in any country. This trade mark consists of a large A and an eagle with wings outspread.

During the year 1900 the output of this association has reached its highest point, which by far exceeds that of any competitor at home or abroad.

Their watchword has ever been "Not how cheap, but How Good," and the purity and satisfaction of their products has entitled them to the patronage they are receiving from a discriminating public in every country in the world.

The Latest Strike

In the Sunset district, California, is in Sec. 1, 11-23—the Arcola Oil company. When the tools were withdrawn a tremendous flow began, estimated at 500 barrels a day.

Possibly the Colorado and California oil companies will report an equal strike in 60 days. Their land is equally good, in the better grade, same district.

The Development of the Routt County OIL FIELDS

Shows indications of extremely rich oil in large quantities. Oil mining is more profitable and much less expensive than gold mining. Routt county is destined to be the greatest oil producer of the state. It will vie with Cripple Creek as the richest territory of the west. If you got in on Cripple Creek after prices were up, don't miss it on Routt county. Get in at low flotation prices. The land of The Northwestern Oil and Coal Co. is in the very center of the oil belt. Investigate it.

Burlington Route

You Deal With But One Concern.

The Burlington Route operates its own trains over its own tracks every foot of the way from Denver to Chicago and St. Louis.

When you buy a ticket over the Burlington, you deal with but one concern. If you have any cause for complaint—or think you have, which amounts to the same thing—you do business with but one railroad. You are not told that "we're not responsible for this," or "the smelter's have said that," or "we'll refer this to our Chicago office."

Two trains a day Denver to Omaha, Chicago, Kansas City, and St. Louis—the Chicago Special at 4:00 p. m., the Vestibuled Flyer at 10:00 p. m.

Train for Black Hills, Montana and Puget Sound leaves Denver 11:30 p. m.
